Baptismal Preparation Requirements

(Our Living Covenant: Policies and Procedures for the Diocese of Prince Albert, 4.2.1)

1. Normal preparation for the celebration of infant baptism should involve three sessions.
2. Baptism should be celebrated communally and preferably during the Sunday celebration, unless a valid pastoral reason dictates otherwise.
3. Parents who have already participated in Baptismal Preparation are encouraged to participate in the Baptismal Preparation Program, to share and deepen their understanding of baptism and their faith.
4. Parishes are encouraged to have a follow-up process.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - MAY 12

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people. Cf. ORDO 2019, P. 224.
